

CHAPTER XVIII

Section 4(1) (b) (xvii) of RTIA 2005.

Other useful Information:

Anyone who is interested in seeking information from the Public Authority can submit an application in a plain paper along with fees or submit the application online, as may be prescribed by the Rules made in this regard, to the Assistant Public Information Officer notified. In case of any problem encountered, an appeal could be filed with the Appellate Authority. The second appeal lies with the State Commission. The Public Information Officer and the Assistant Public Information Officer have already been trained regarding the implementation of the Right to Information Act, 2005.
